

I received a message from my favorite radio station KLove that you are considering taking away the FM translator.

Please do not take away the FM station translators. Even though Klove is located out of California I feel so connected to the station. Please don't take away the radio station's ability to broadcast to me. I would be lost without Klove. Thank you for your consideration.